

Wash Post 3/24/66

Very Interesting People

By Maxine Cheshire

England Will Be Swinging More Than Ever Before

PRINCESS MARGARET'S Kensington Palace pals are about to inherit one of Washington's Gay-Amusing-Young crowd: Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield's long-haired, long-hair daughter, Anne.

Mrs. Cheshire

London is definitely where the action is these days for someone like Anne, who is a brilliantly madcap egghead original. She went to one party here for Her Royal Highness, beautifully groomed, but with her hair in a long Pocahontas pigtail down her back. And she spent the afternoon quoting from P. G. Wodehouse's "The Stuffed Owl," an anthology of the worst poetry ever written.

My favorite of the verses pertains to the demise of one of Meg's ancestors, Queen Victoria, and begins:

*"Dust to dust, ashes to ashes,
Into her grave our great Queen dashes..."*

Journalistic job offers on the other side of the Atlantic were plentiful the minute word spread that Anne was ready to leave Vision magazine. But she hasn't made up her mind where she'll go to work.

The round of goodbyes started last night with her great admirer Algerian Ambassador Cherif Guellal inviting 30 friends to an informal bonvoyage at Les Ormes.

Benefit Urban League

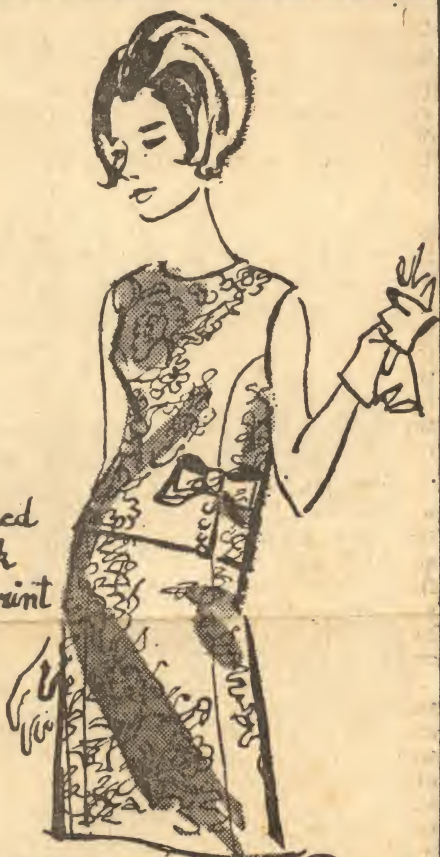

appeared on the Sammy Davis, Jr. and "Tonight" television shows.

Other honorable chairmen are the Nicaraguan Ambassador, Guillermo Sevilla-Sacasa, dean of the Diplomatic Corps; the Ambassador of Liberia, S. Edward Peal; the Ambassador of Luxembourg, Maurice Steirmetz; Mrs. Dean Rusk, wife of the Secretary of State; Mrs. Thurgood Marshall and Aileen Hernandez, Commissioner of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

Spring's jewel-toned
pure silk
two piece print

$23

Hayman's

530 King St., Alexandria
Arlandria • Bradlee
Westover Arl. • Manassas, Va.

000

9, suburban stores 10 'til 9:30